

With One Voice

THE MEETING POINT OF ALL SPIRITUAL TRADITIONS

A Benefit to Support the Filming of a Spiritual Documentary

Presented by

Matthew Flickstein

DATE AND TIME: Sunday, September 28, 2008 7:00—9:00 pm

LOCATION: UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST CHURCH, 2601 St. Andrews Blvd, Boca Raton

Matthew Flickstein, a distinguished author and teacher of meditation and Buddhism, will give a talk on "The Seven Concentric Circles of Spiritual Development." He will offer a dynamic model that describes the stages of spiritual development that are common to all spiritual paths. All these paths lead to the same place — wisdom and clarity of mind, open heart, and awareness of unity and non-duality.

Matthew will also talk about "With One Voice," the documentary film he is now making that will feature interviews with recognized spiritual leaders from 15 different traditions about their personal journeys and their understanding of how to achieve peace in today's world.

The film will reflect the unified vision of spiritual truth from the perspective of those who have witnessed its depths, including:

Joseph Goldstein – Theravada Buddhism
Father Thomas Keating – Christian Tradition
Reb Zalman Schacter-Shalomi – Jewish Tradition
Mingyur Rinpoche – Tibetan Buddhism
Brother David Steindl-Rast – Christian Tradition

Pir Zia – Sufi Tradition
Sadhguru Vasudev – Yoga Tradition
Joan Halifax Roshi – Zen Buddhism
Marge Abbott – Quaker Tradition
Malidoma Some – African Shamanic

DONATIONS ACCEPTED

This is a fund raising event to support the making of "With One Voice." This project is expected to reach its fullest potential through the generous contributions of those who resonate with its purpose and vision. In Matthew's own words, "There is no donation that is too small. The key is that you and others involved believe in the project and how it can affect world peace." Contributions are tax deductible.
